CV for Lisbeth Holdt Jørgensen

I am a trained actress from The National Theatre School where I graduated in 1992. For 9 years I worked as an actress on several theatres there among The Royal Theatre.

In 2004 I finished my bachelor degree in voice and speech therapy and rhetoric from The University of Copenhagen. In 2009 I got my master where I had specialized in teaching actors and other voice professionals.

2004 I began as voice coach at The Royal Theatre. My function at the Royal Theatre, was to support the actors in the artistic work regarding voice and physical expression. The goal was authentic presence on the stage.

Along the work as voice coach for the actors I was trainer on The Royal Leadership Academy, where I taught leaders to conquer the room with personal presence and charisma.

After 8 years as voice coach on the theatre I am now independent voice and performance coach in Voice Incorporated. And I am personal trainer for leaders, public speakers, layers etc.

Among my customers are Swedbank, Danske Bank, Novo Nordisk, Mærsk, The Danish, DJØF, The Danish Union of Journalist, Singularity U Nordic, Dare Disrupt.
